“Great power can come from memorizing scriptures. To memorize a scripture is to forge a new friendship. It is like discovering a new individual who can help in time of need, give inspiration and comfort, and be a source of motivation for needed change.”

(Richard G. Scott, “The Power of Scripture,” General Conference, October 2011)

“When individual members and families immerse themselves in the scriptures regularly and consistently, other areas of activity will automatically come. Testimonies will increase. Commitment will be strengthened. Families will be fortified. Personal revelation will flow.”

(President Gordon B. Hinckley, “The Power of the Book of Mormon,” Ensign, June 1988)

“We must study the scriptures according to the Lord’s commandment (3 Nephi 23:1-5); and we must let them govern our lives and the lives of our children . . . So I ask all to begin now to study the scriptures in earnest, if you have not already done so.” (President Spencer W. Kimball, “How Rare a Possession – The Scriptures!,” Ensign, September 1976)

The Savior commanded us, “And now, behold, I say unto you, that ye ought to search these things. Yea, a commandment I give unto you that ye search these things diligently,” (3 Nephi 23:1)
